Eric Svalgard

Agenda: As ordered by the President

President Bonsall opened the meeting with a question to accept the previous meeting minutes, the minutes were approved and accepted without correction. Treasurer James Trumbull gave the treasurer's report without changes.

The Association Newsletter was addressed with suggestions to include a brief bio of the board members, contact information for county and state government representatives and services. Also, a frequently asked question section concerning the Association and its functions. The cost of producing a Newsletter printing, mailing was discussed and viewed as an acceptable expenditure. The Newsletter will be produced in both hard-copy and digital for the website. It will be announced on the Facebook page and the Website prior to mailings.

The Association website was addressed also to include the Newsletter, dues payment dates and methods, treasury balances and expenditures, also any dues paid now and going forward will cover next year's dues requirement. The website will also include the number of houses in the Association and means to update house information.

The Annual Yard sale is to be coordinated with other local Associations with an eye toward Fall and Spring events.

President Bonsall addressed the possibility of indemnity insurance for the Board and whether the Association would need official registration status to do so. Vice President Gamble stated he had information from the local State Farm agent and that we should follow up.

Further Community and Board meetings have been scheduled for September 15th, November 17th and January 19th, 2023.

The meeting was closed with prayer.

Submitted,

Kevin Palmer
